

Miller Creek Stewardship Opportunity

Join other outdoor enthusiasts as they help restore the forest around Miller Creek. Please sign up in advance as the event will be cancelled if there is low attendance.

Miller Creek at S. 144th St., Burien

When: Friday, December 11, 9:30 – 12:30

Where: Miller Creek at S. 144th St. at the intersection of S. 144th Way. Park at the trailhead along Des Moines Memorial Drive just south of S. 144th St and walk west along the trail and across S. 144th Way to the site. Activities will include planting native plants and removing invasive weeds.

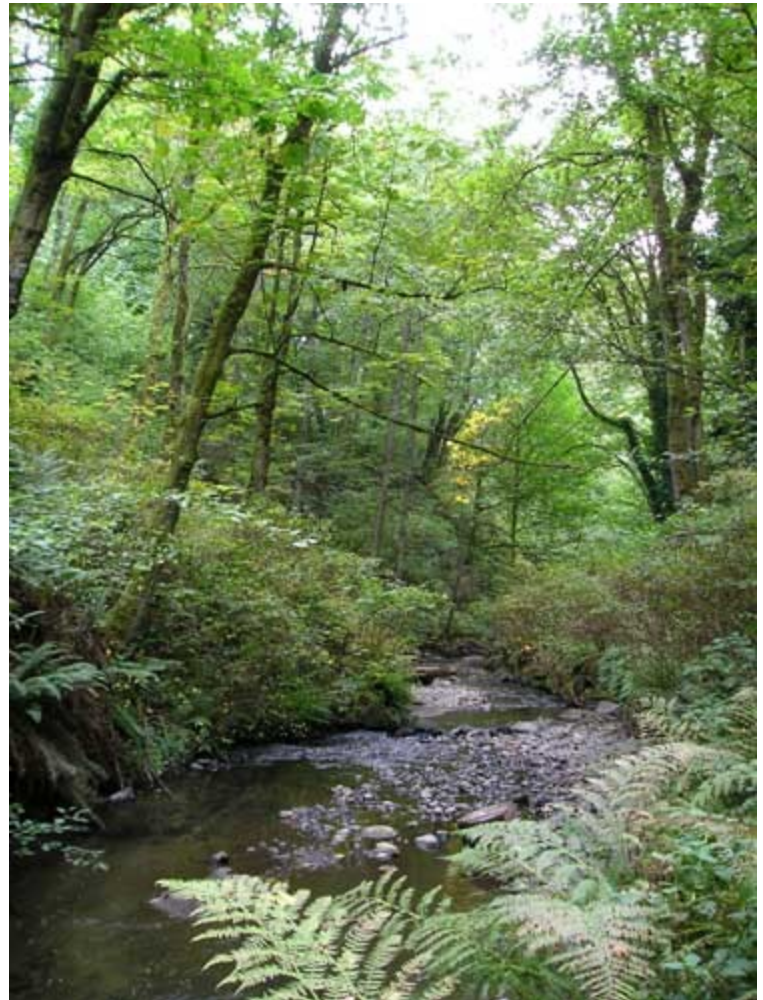

What: You will be given tools, gloves and training to plant native plants, and if there is time, remove invasive weeds. Volunteers will be putting in over 50 plants to restore the forest and creek to health. The more help, the better!

What to bring: Stewardship Program will provide gloves, tools, snacks, hot coffee and training.

- Dress in layers, wear rubber boots and rain gear. Long pants and long sleeves will help protect you from hazards.
- Bring a filled water bottle.

Sign up - the event will be cancelled if there are not enough volunteers! Sign-ups also let the Stewardship Program know how many tools to bring. Invite your friends and kids. Email or call Elissa Ostergaard at elissa.ostergaard@kingcounty.gov or 206.477.4792 to sign up or with questions.
