

May is Puget Sound Starts Here Month

Puget Sound Starts Here (PSSH) is a public awareness campaign connecting more than 750 organizations across the Puget Sound region's 12 counties. Partners in this campaign include federal, state and local governments, tribes and non-governmental organizations dedicated to protecting Puget Sound. Puget Sound Starts Here is a campaign to unite efforts throughout the Puget Sound region with the goal of improving the health of Puget Sound. When people work together, small actions make a big difference.

Pollution in Puget Sound threatens our food, our water, and our livelihoods. When it rains, water flows over hard surfaces like house roofs, parking lots, driveways, lawns where the soil has packed down, and streets, picking up animal waste, lawn chemicals like fertilizer and pesticides, oil and car leaks, and many other pollutants along with the rain flow. This polluted water then flows through ditches or storm drains and into our local streams, rivers, lakes, and wetlands that eventually empty into the Puget Sound. Most runoff is not treated.

Together we have the power to fix our local waterways and Puget Sound. Just a few simple changes will make a significant difference.

- In your yard: use fertilizers and pesticides sparingly, or just use compost.
- With your car: take your car to a commercial car wash and have oil leaks fixed.
- Around your dog: pick up dog waste, double bag it and place it in the trash (not in the yard waste bin).
- At home: from cleaning products to septic tank maintenance, be aware of how you care for your home and how it affects the environment.

POLICE NEWS

April Guns, DUIs, and Warrants

During the month of April, SeaTac Deputies removed from the streets:

Guns	24*
DUIs	5
Warrants	57

*Seventeen of these weapons were seized from a man who, apparently suffering from a mental health crisis, fired multiple rounds inside his own apartment, endangering other residents.

Prolific Pharmacy Robbery Suspects Arrested in SeaTac

On May 2, at about 11:30 PM, Deputy Bugosh was patrolling the parking lot of a local motel when he saw an occupied, parked car that matched the description of one used in a rash of pharmacy robberies around King County, including the City of Kirkland about 3 hours earlier. Deputy Bugosh's investigation led to the arrest of two of the main suspects. Kirkland Police Officers came to SeaTac to take custody of one suspect, a second was booked on an outstanding warrant. They are believed to be responsible for over (70) pharmacy robberies. It is not yet known what exact charges will be filed against these suspects, but this is a great example of an alert and well-informed Deputy, patrolling hot spots to fight crime.

National Drug Take Back Day – Results

On April 29, SeaTac participated in a National Drug Take Back event, intended to give residents a place to dispose of unwanted prescription medications. During the four hour collection event, two boxes of prescription narcotics, weighing about 20 lbs. each, were collected and submitted for destruction.

May Day Demonstrations/Protests – Update

Many local law enforcement agencies including SeaTac and Port of Seattle, planned for the possibility that May Day demonstrations would be focused on the airport and surrounding areas. As often happens, the planning and preparation equaled great low-risk/low-cost practice for all involved as the demonstrations in our area did not materialize.

Save the Date – Mail Theft Prevention Meeting

Please join members of the SeaTac Police and United States Postal Inspectors in a prevention-oriented community meeting to discuss the realities of mail theft, identity theft and mail fraud. The meeting will be held at SeaTac City Hall, Council Chambers on Monday May 22 between 6:00 PM and 7:30 PM. The event is open to anyone who wishes to attend.
