

Interlocal Agreement with Port of Seattle

The proposed 2018 Interlocal Agreement (ILA) between the City and the Port of Seattle was released today for public comment. The document, press release and other information is now available on the City's website. A brief introductory presentation on the proposed ILA will be made at the City Council Study Session on Tuesday, November 14 at 5:00 PM. An Open House, jointly hosted by the Port and the City will be held at the SeaTac Community Center on Thursday, November 16 from 4:30 to 7:30 PM and will provide another opportunity to learn about the proposed agreement. The City Council and Port Commission are currently scheduled to review the proposed ILA at their respective meetings on November 14 and 28, and on December 12.

Holiday Bazaar Update

Held last Saturday, the Senior Program's Holiday Bazaar was another great success. This annual event has become a wonderful community gathering. It featured 80 vendors selling a wide variety of hand crafted items and treasures galore. Attendance was steady throughout the day and the vendors were happy with their sales. The Candy Cane Café was bustling and seniors were busy selling tickets for raffle prizes and gorgeous gift baskets. Senior volunteers and department staff worked hard all day to ensure a wonderful outcome. Special thanks to our two sponsors – Bow Lake Residential Community and Boulevard Park Place.
