A family in crisis staying in SeaTac received a generous gift thanks to the work of SeaTac Police Officers.

On Saturday, November 3, 2018, a couple staying at the SeaTac Inn called 911 asking for food assistance. The man and his wife stated they had not eaten in two days and did not have the means to purchase any food.

Due to the late hours, emergency food resources were not open to assist the couple in need. However, this did not deter the dispatcher who reached out to the City of SeaTac police officers to see if they could assist.

Officer Marshall, Officer Scherck along with Sergeant Kajihiro responded to the motel. Realizing the need of the couple, the deputies and sergeant dug into their own pockets and purchased food for the family. The SeaTac Police officers delivered the food to the hotel. In addition, the officers called the Mobile Crisis Team who could assist the couple with long-term food assistance.

The City is thankful for the law enforcement officers who serve and protect our City on a daily basis. This random act of kindness is a reflection of the quality and dedication of officers we have in our City.
