

Memoriam for Councilmember Amina Ahmed

On the night of Tuesday, December 11, the City Council, staff, and community honored Councilmember Amina Ahmed. The newly-appointed Councilmember was killed in a traffic accident over the weekend.

The Council appointed Amina to Position Number 5 eight weeks ago to fill a vacant seat.

The newly-appointed 52-year-old was a positive force who worked tirelessly to unify the community and to help create lasting relationships with many who live and work in SeaTac, especially those members of the refugee and immigrant communities.

She will be greatly missed at City Hall.
