

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

January 4, 2019

Join the Seattle Southside Chamber and the City of Normandy Park for an Emergency Preparedness Event

With the start of a new year, the Seattle Southside Chamber and the City of Normandy Park are proud to promote emergency preparedness in the Seattle Southside Region. They have partnered together to bring the community a public emergency management presentation, the evening of Wednesday, February 6, 2019, at 5 pm in the main auditorium at the Criminal Justice Training Center.

Colonel Kevin McMahan with the Washington National Guard, together with staff from Washington's Emergency Management Division, will provide a presentation on "What You Need to Know to Survive a Natural Disaster." Residents and business owners from the cities of Burien, Des Moines, Normandy Park, SeaTac, Tukwila, and Federal Way, as well as Seattle Southside Chamber Members, are invited to attend.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency states that Preparedness is everyone's job, not just government agencies. We are committed to preparing for a natural disaster and encourage you to prepare with us. For More Information about this event visit:
