

Winter Storm Continues to Impact SeaTac City Operations

SeaTac, WA (February 12, 2019) – SeaTac City Hall, Community Center and Municipal Court are closed today, Tuesday February 12, 2019 due to inclement weather.

Monitor the City of SeaTac website homepage for the latest information on City facility hours. Due to weather and road conditions, all Highline schools and district administrative offices are closed on Tuesday, February 12. All scheduled activities, athletic events and meetings are canceled. No transportation will be provided to schools outside of our district.

Continue to monitor the Highline District website for updates.

On Tuesday, Public Works and Parks maintenance staff employees continue to work 12-hour, round-the-clock shifts to plow and apply sand, salt and brine to primary arterial roadways within the City. While City arterial roads are clear, many residential streets remain difficult to navigate. Residents should slow down while driving and don't make any unnecessary trips.

With many residential streets still covered in snow, ice and slush, Recology Cleanscapes has cancelled collections for Tuesday, February 12. Current conditions make it dangerous for collection vehicles to travel residential neighborhoods.

To assist SeaTac residents who have experienced an interruption in service, Recology Cleanscapes has staged an emergency collection zone that is available Tuesday, February 12, from 7 AM- 3 PM at the SeaTac Community Center Lower Parking Lot, located at 13735 24th Ave South. A second emergency collection zone is setup in the parking lot of Valley Ridge Park located at 4644 S 188th Street. These pickup spots are for garbage only. Please bring material bagged or bundled. No large bulky items will be accepted.

Recology Cleanscapes has activated its inclement weather plan and its operations team is closely monitoring weather conditions. The City of SeaTac and Recology Cleanscapes is working on a plan to service all customers impacted by missed collection days. Recology Cleanscapes is prioritizing collections to essential commercial customers such as the airport, hospitals and grocery stores. To get questions answered about rescheduled pickups, customers can visit the Recology Cleanscapes website or Email seatac@recology.com or call 206.767.1166.

The inclement weather continues to impact King County Metro Transit and roadways. For more information about the county impacts click on regional Emergency News.
