

S. 200th St. On-Ramp Closed This Weekend

Friday, July 26 from 9 PM through 5 AM Monday, July 29

SeaTac, WA (July 23, 2019) – The City of SeaTac Public Works Department is working in collaboration with the Washington State Department of Transportation to make improvements to the S. 200th St on-ramp. The I-5 South on-ramp at S. 200th Street will be closed for construction Friday, July 26 starting at 9 PM, through Monday morning, July 29 at 5 AM.

A detour will be in place to direct traffic south on Military Road S. to the I-5 Northbound on-ramp. Drivers are advised to exit at S. 188th Street, cross under the freeway, and enter the on-ramp to Southbound I-5, essentially making a loop as shown in the map above.

Construction crews will be widening the shoulder along the S. 200th Street on-ramp to construct one metered lane and one peak-hour metered lane. In addition, crews will be improving drainage, signage, and lighting, and will also be relocating utilities.

During the nighttime, construction crews will be utilizing saw-cutters, jackhammers, generators, and front loaders for this project.
