BUSINESS

Agency Presentation(s)

John Zumsteg provided his thoughts on the process, the work of the committee and commends the committee for their hard work, attention to detail and diligence with learning and implementing this process.

Final budget was reviewed and allocations recommended. Mel McDonald will present the Committee's funding recommendation to A&F and Council on December 14th. Mel will meet with Colleen to review presentation and handouts.

Holiday of Hope – FRC, The Corridor and the City of SeaTac as well as other partners are collecting toys for kids in need. Parents that are referred by schools/FRC/CSO's will shop for two toys per child on December 11th. Toys due by the 10th. Volunteers welcome and cookies, too.

New Business

Colleen shared information on the following:

- Global to Local Health video was reviewed.
- Global to Local (G2L) partners continue to meet, hold focus groups and compare the take-aways from the community with the landscape analysis. The landscape analysis conducted by PATH is looking for programs that have worked globally that could address the issues they are hearing about in the focus groups.
- Meeting dates for the January and February dates need to be changed due to holidays falling on our regularly scheduled meetings. The committee decided to meet on the 4th Mondays for both January and February.

Next meeting:

January 24th –schedule change due to holiday. Airport Conference Room
