Public Comment Process: In an effort to adhere to the social distancing protocols, and in order to keep our residents, Planning Commission, and staff healthy, the Commission will not hear any in-person public comments. The Commission is providing remote oral and written public comment opportunities. All comments shall be respectful in tone and content. Signing-up for remote comments or providing written comments must be done by 3:30pm the day of the meeting. Any requests to speak or provide written public comments which are not submitted following the instructions provided or by the deadline will not be included as part of the record.

- Instructions for providing remote oral public comments are located at the following link: Council Committee and Citizen Advisory Committee Virtual Meetings.
- Submit email/text public comments to PCPublicComment@seatacwa.gov. Any comments on items not on the agenda will be mentioned by name and subject and then placed in the committee handout packet posted to the website. Written comments for the public hearing will be read verbatim into the record, up to five minutes each.

A quorum of the City Council may be present.
All Commission meetings are open to the public.

The Planning Commission consists of seven members appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council. The Commission primarily considers plans and regulations relating to the physical development of the city, plus other matters as assigned. The Commission is an advisory body to the City Council.
