- New Bussiness Bobby Jo Shockley is the Director of Lighthouse Northwest. Lighthouse Northwest is a transitional housing program for victims of domestic violence and their children. They not only provide safe housing, they have job training, college courses, budget planning and many other life skills needed to be safe and raising a family as a single mother. Their 2-year program includes a life coach and it's called "Voice and Choice." They teach women and children to be independent and go on to live a safe, healthy life. They visit the local school and teach a "Action Awareness" program on domestic violence and educate students on safety and protection from violence. The agency's goal is to have a safe house in every city in South King County.
- Next Meeting April 12, 2021 at 5:30 p.m. Virtual
- Adjourn: Dennis Cooper moved to adjourn the meeting and Christine Bertie seconded.
- Meeting was adjourned at 6:23 p.m.
