BUSINESS presentations

- Belina Van Catholic Community Services Volunteer Services Belina Van is the director of Catholic Community Services Volunteer program. The program has been going for over 20 years. They have been helping elderly folks with in home care, grocery shopping and yard work. She showed the Committee before and after photos of a fence repair they did and it turned out beautiful. They also do minor home Repairs such as faucet leaks and small appliance repairs. They transport folks to their medical appointment and completed over 6,200 deliveries. COVID-19 inspired the agency to start a "Phone buddy" program where they make calls and talk with elderly adults that aren't able to go out and socialize. They logged over 3,000 hours of "checking in calls". Kim Cooper gave updates on Human Services and CARES funds.
