

Arts, Culture & Library Advisory Committee
Meeting Minutes

May 12, 2021

Virtual Meeting

5:30 p.m.

CALL TO ORDER: The Arts, Culture & Library Advisory Committee meeting was called to order at 5:32 p.m.

ROLL CALL: Present: Toka Valu, Rita Palomino Marlow, Taryn Hill, Jim Todd, Peter Daigle

ABSENT: Kathleen Brave, Tani Rae Stanridge

STAFF LIAISON: Brian Tomisser, Recreation and Cultural Services Manager; Jessica Ramirez, Recreation Specialist

ALSO PRESENT: Lesley Bain; Framework, Councilmember Clyde Hill, Tanja Carter; Economic Development Strategist, Tommy Gregory; Art Program Manager & Curator at Port of Seattle, Annabelle Goavec; Port of Seattle, SEATV

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: Minutes dated April 14, 2021 were approved as written.

TOMMY GREGORY, PORT OF SEATTLE: A presentation was shared, with pictures of the current artwork that exists in the airport as well as upcoming projects. Committee members shared they like the art and asked about future possibilities of the Port expanding art to other locations or making it more accessible for the public to enjoy.

LIBRARY REPORT: They are working on a phase 4 reopening plan and our local library is active and busy serving patron during their curbside hours.

TANJA CARTER, TOURISM POLICY UPDATE: Tanja shared the details of updates on the tourism policy.

OLD BUSINESS:

Action Plan Discussion: Brian shared a timeline for the input on the Action Plan and time to review. Members shared comments and feedback about the deadline.

Summer updates: In addition to Music in the Park, there will be Dance in the Park focused towards kids, during the day. There may be an additional show of Theatre in the Park, SeaTac United Chess programs and a Movie in the Park.

Open Forum: Committee members expressed interest in a Sculpture Park somewhere on 200th. With the grand opening of the SeaTac Center Mall, a Somali Independence Day celebration may be in the works.

Vibe Hunters is working on another year of Art Attack with the City. The 188th Fence Art Project was declined by the City, they are looking for a new location.

.

ADJOURNMENT: Meeting was adjourned at 7:04 pm.