PRESENTATIONS:

Unallocated Human Services Funds for 2021.

PCPS Director Ellis stated the purpose of this presentation is to deliberate and recommend on what to do with the unallocated funds. He presented the individual CMs and Community Services Advisory Committee (CSAC) recommendations. HS Coordinator Cooper was present to answer questions.

Council discussion ensued regarding the recommendations.

Mr. Ellis stated staff will draft a policy on unallocated funds based on today's discussions. The policy will come before Council.

Mayor Sitterley stated it appears the recommendation liked by a majority of the CMs is to put the funds in a reserve to be used in urgent and additional needs to be carried forward by currently vetted Human Services Agencies.

Direction: Staff to draft a policy and bring it back before Council.

SeaTac Police Contracting Model.

Captain BJ Myers introduced Chief Financial Officer Jason King.

Mr. King and Mr. Myers presented the 2021 contracting model: ILA, concept behind contracting and specific benefits, local control, costs, SeaTac Police and King County Sheriff's Office (KCSO) transitions, and police activity review.

Council discussion ensued regarding the contract model and potential revisions to the contract.

Mayor Sitterley stated the meeting needs to adjourn at 5:45 p.m. and therefore there's no time for questions.

Direction: Council to send questions to Captain Myers and a future meeting will be scheduled for discussion
