- New Business
- Angela Mercado is the Executive Director of DAWN-Domestic Abuse Women’s Network. She joined the team in June of 2019 and has been in Human Services for 21 years. DAWN started with 2 women and 1 desk in a small church back in 1963. They currently have services such as legal, DV response team, mobile crisis, counseling for children to prevent domestic violence and a 13-bed shelter. Their advocates will go to the location of the victim to assist them where they feel safe. They are presenting at Highline College and Green River College about Healthy Relationships and how to break the cycle. In 202 they served 134 women and provided 6,123 safe beds nights.
- Kim Cooper provided Human Services updates and events.
