Business

2011-2012 Contracts meetings are almost complete; contracts have been signed on our end and are in the mail to agencies.

Colleen shared information on the following:

New Business

- Collective Impact article homework for the group: please read and consider ways that this article can inform the way we do our work as a committee, the way agencies do work, and how Human Services should be integrated/or not with the other work of the city.
- Chair and Vice-Chair were elected: Phyllis Byers will be the new committee chair and Joe Van the new Vice-Chair.
- Community engagement was discussed in the context of CPPW how successful it was to involve the public in the Safe Routes to Schools walking audit. Kids, adults, city staff, and representatives from Public Health, Feet First and Cascade Bicycle all participated and walked the area around Madrona Elementary School to see how accessible it was to walk to school.
