ABSENT: Jim Todd

STAFF LIAISON: Mary Tuttle, Parks & Recreation Director

ALSO PRESENT: Erik Matthews, King County Library System; Nicole Jones, Acting Recreation & Cultural Services Manager; Jessica Ramirez, Special Events Coordinator;

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: Minutes dated July 12, 2023, were approved after misspelling.

LIBRARY REPORT: Erik shared an update on the Summer Reading Program. In person tutors are back at the local branch on Tuesday evenings. World Language Story Times are back to in person as well, various branches offer different languages. He shared more upcoming programs like Sculpting, the Plant Swap, Fire Safety Day, Job Search Day, and more. The Zine Contest has launched and information for all programs and events can be found online.

CALL TO ARTIST: Rita & Mary presented to Parks and Rec committee in September and had positive feedback from the council. They shared the results from that meeting and the committee discussed more about the call to artist's form. Changes were made to the most recent form. Final edits were made and approval for publication.

ARTS CATALOGUE BRAINSTORM: Peter mentioned that a fellow Council Member shared an idea about creating an art catalogue with a database or map to be shared with motels and hotels in SeaTac for people to visit all the art in the City. The committee discussed the possibility of this, what that could potentially look like, and how to best go about this.

SPECIAL EVENTS: Committee members are not available to attend the events in October and will discuss December availability at next month's meeting.
