BUSINESS

Agency Presentation(s)

Alisa Kelley, Therapist and Dr. Glenn Paddock, Clinical Director of Ruth Dykeman discussed the Navos merger – goals and values remain the same. SeaTac dollars allows them to see low-income families without medical coupons. Alisa works with kids on issues of anger management, grief, positive self image, reunification with families, cultural and self-identity issues. They served 107% of their contracted services in 2010 and are at 64% for 2011.

Senior Services/Cindy Zwart, Transportation Program Director, shared their program was awarded the Beverly Foundation Star of Excellence Award. They have 400 volunteers that use their own vehicles to help seniors to medical appointments. The seniors are often people who cannot easily use Access due to short term memory loss, hearing or eyesight loss, physical disabilities, needs for cancer treatments. They have to be 60 y/o and have a need.

Dale Hoover, Meals on Wheels started in Seattle in 1976. At present the meals are made in the prison system. He said they get a good response from the chef when there are complaints which are few. They try to work with people with a variety of dietary needs from health to cultural. They ask for donations for the meals and get approx. $.27 per meal donated. The meals cost approx. $4.50.

Business Ron Altier congratulated as a voting member of the Committee.

New Business Phyllis shared information on the following:

- Back To School Fair – Joe and Phyllis will be at the fair
