BUSINESS

Agency Presentation(s)

King County Sexual Assault Resource Center/Mary Ellen Stone shared that legal advocacy work is up 17%. 38 victims have been served by the 3rd quarter. KCSARC has exceeded almost all annual performance measures. They are involved in prevention work – Teams provide education materials and information sessions for PTA's, Churches, etc. to help residents be prepared for sex offenders moving into their communities.

Community Schools Collaboration/Ron Asher talked about their Community Outreach Liaisons who answer questions and concerns from parents about school, provide CSC programming info, afterschool programs and discussed the importance of family engagement to help their children be successful in school. The results have been improved success in school, increased attendance, and decreased discipline, and more engaged in the community.

Business

The Committee's Annual Report to Council is tomorrow, Tuesday, November 22nd. Phyllis is presenting and the Committee is encouraged to attend.

Global to Local Open House is postponed until after the 1st of the year.

Colleen shared information on the following:

New Business

- 3rd quarter reports are in and all are performing at or above expectations. AYR is down in client contacts due to safety of workers out on International Blvd but are up in number of clients entering into case management which is the desired result. MSC is down in numbers served as the amount needed to assist and stabilize rent/utilities is greater than anticipated.
- Rotary Award for Community Service was given to Joe Van for his Watch D.O.G.S program. $1,000 given to the McMicken PTSA.
- Holiday of Hope will be held Dec. 17th at the Family Resource Center. Contact Colleen for details. Toys are needed.
- Dave/Ron shared about the meeting they attended regarding the State of Human Services.
