

Information Notice

January 15, 2013

The Port of Seattle Commission plans to appoint a new member to the commission on March 5, 2013.

The duration of this appointment will be through the end of 2013. At the November 2013 general election, a candidate will be elected to complete the term. Applications for the position are being accepted until noon on February 1st. An information session will be held on January 22, at 5pm at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport for anyone interested in learning more.

Responsibilities

This is a part time position (about half-time); responsibilities include:

- Representing the nearly 2 million citizens of King County.
- Advancing regional economic development and reducing the Port's ecological footprint.
- Creating 100,000 more jobs in our region by implementing the Century Agenda.
- Overseeing the Port of Seattle, which includes the Northwest's biggest seaport, Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, Fisherman's Terminal, cruise ship terminals, and a real estate portfolio.
- Working with the State, King County and King County's 39 cities.
- Serving on outside boards and committees.
- Attending and speaking at community functions, events, and receptions.

Compensation

Current commissioner compensation is $500 per month, plus per diem. Commissioners are also eligible to participate in the port's medical program.
